

Brandon Lay

59 Port of Spain Rd, Coronado, CA 92118 | (619) 302-4976 | b.lay@umiami.edu

WORK EXPERIENCE

PricewaterhouseCoopers

Singapore

Valuations Summer Analyst

May – July 2012

- Provided valuation advisory services in M&A, purchase price allocation and intangible asset valuation
- Assisted with extensive Excel modeling on assets proposed for acquisition and cost of capital evaluation
- Conducted company research and data analysis using Capital IQ and the Bloomberg Terminal
- Cross-referenced models and tested for potential impairment of Fair Value valuations
- Participated in partner-client meetings and due diligence interviews

American International Group

Singapore

Chartis Group - Finance & Accounting Intern

June – August 2011

- Underwent a rotational program with the finance and accounting department
- Prepared reports on the 2011 Quarterly Estimate and Analysis for APAC region
- Aided in the fundamental aspects of financial record keeping, including recording financial transactions, arranging journal entries and reconciling bank statements

EDUCATION

University of Miami

Coral Gables, FL

Bachelor of Business Administration: Economics, Finance

Expected May 2014

- Economics Major GPA: 4.0, Finance Major GPA: 3.78
- Cumulative GPA: 3.70
- Provost's Honor Roll, School of Business Dean's List
- Will graduate with Cum Laude Honors

Hogeschool van Amsterdam – School of Economics

Holland, Netherlands

Semester Abroad

August – December 2012

- Enrolled in international economics and finance courses to gain further insight on the European perspective of the recent economic crisis

SKILLS, ACTIVITIES & AWARDS

- Proficient with Bloomberg Terminal and S&P Capital IQ
- Very skilled with Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Word, Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator
- Canes Investing Association
- Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity
- Nobles Awards – Singapore
- Coaches Award for Rugby (Captain) – Singapore